FEDERATED W. C. T. U. DISCUSSES POLITICS.

For the first time in their history, probably, the W. C. T. U. of Ogden met in a nice cool cellar. The cellar was at the home of Miss Leota Kennedy and the day August 2nd. There were just fifteen present, all wards being represented, however, and the innovation was much enjoyed, because of the great heat above ground. The president and vice president both being absent from the city, Mrs. J. S. Gordon, president of the Fifth ward W. C. T. U., presided, seated on a white draped throne on a raised platform. Fifteen W. C. T. U. fans kept a nice prohibition breeze circulating, and until the meeting began there was much hilarity.

After the regular opening exercises and reports of officers and committees, the arrangements for the banquet to be held in celebration of the thirty-third anniversary of the Union were discussed.

Because of the absence from the city of so many members the banquet, which had been scheduled for August 16th, will not be held until Tuesday, September 19th, at 7:30 p. m., probably in the basement of the Methodist church, where the first state convention was held, twenty-five years ago.

Miss Leota Kennedy, Mrs. J. W. Welch and Mrs. W. S. Flewelling were appointed on the program committee. The four presidents were given charge of the invitations.

The refreshment committee will consist of the four presidents, assisted by the following ladies: Mesdames Ed Goodale, G. A. Muller, V. Way, J. F. Freeland, G. M. Stoddard, J. C. Freeland, E. Bower, Jas. Drysdale, J. F. Lawson, and Miss Jessie Dale.

The banquet will probably be served by non-members. Each member will be permitted to bring an escort or a lady guest.

After a discussion of politics and other topics, the union adjourned and the hostess, assisted by Miss Minis, served light refreshments.

NARROW ESCAPE

IN A RUNAWAY

A miraculous escape from death, when his run-away team plunged into Ogden river, is accredited to George Buckway, 3299 Stevens avenue. A few minutes before 9 o'clock last night Buckway, climbed onto his wagon at the corner of Twentieth street and Wall avenue. Before he was well seated, the horses became frightened at a passing switch engine and started to run up Twentieth street. Buckway grabbed the reins and endeavored to hold the team in the road. When they had reached the next corner, the animals swung north on Lincoln avenue, and increased their gait despite the efforts of their driver to stop them. When near the Ogden river bridge of the O. L. & I. company, the horses, seemingly blinded with fear, made no attempt to strike the bridge but plunged wildly into the river. One horse lit squarely on a sharp post sticking up in the water and tore a great hole in his stomach. The other horse escaped with a few cuts and bruises. Buckway was hurled into the air and fell upon the back of the agonized animal. He was rescued later in a dazed condition by employees of the Becker Brewery.

The police station was notified of the accident and Officer Brown and Chaffeur Wheat responded.

Brissac was second with $500 and Grand Chimes third with $250. Best time for the race was 2:14 1-4.

Many of the stars of the Grand circuit are already on their way to Pittsburgh, where racing will be held next week.

GILBERT GETS DRAW WITH MATTY SMITH

Pueblo, Colo., Aug. 4.—Jim Flynn, referee, called a draw in the twenty-round bout here tonight between Matty Smith of Racine, Wis., and Young Gilbert of Salt Lake. The newspaper critics at the ringside decided that Smith won the decision by a comfortable margin.

Smith is considered to have out-generaled and out-fought his opponent throughout. Gilbert was the aggressor throughout the twenty rounds, carrying the fight to his opponent at all times. Smith was credited with landing the most clean blows. Both men were strong when the fight closed. The decision of Referee Flynn was unpopular with the crowd and he was hissed.
